

DIRECTIONS TO
THE BARN, GREENFIELDS FARM,
ALPORT, NR BAKEWELL, DERBYSHIRE, DE45 1LJ

1. Take the B5056 marked Ashbourne and Youlgrave which is a turning off the A6 between Bakewell and Matlock. It's a right turn if you are coming from Bakewell direction, about 2 miles from Bakewell. It's a left turn if you are coming from Matlock direction, about a mile after the village of Rowsley.
2. After about a mile, keep right following signs to Youlgrave (ignore left turn over the bridge to Ashbourne).
3. After a further half mile or so you will then come to the hamlet of Alport. Turn left at either the first or second junction in Alport. Both turnings have "unsuitable for HGV's" signs.
4. Follow the lane over the small bridge and up the hill. The hill has two hairpin bends. Keep going up. Pass over a cross roads, lane on left and track on right.
5. About 200 yards after the cross roads, you will pass New Farm on your left (clearly marked) and the lane doglegs to the right.
6. Continue for a further 100 yards where there are more farm buildings on your left. At this point there is a gateway and a track on your right. Turn right onto the track which leads down to Greenfields Farm (about another 100 yards).
7. There is some parking at the end of the track. If there is no space please park off the track on the verge of the field which is on your left, where you will see some cars already parked.
